

PARENTS RIGHT TO KNOW POLICY

Every school district receiving Title I funds must annually notify parents of each child in each school receiving funds that they have the right to request information about the qualifications of their children's teachers. The information available to parents on request must include:

- Whether a teacher "has met state qualification and licensing criteria for the grade levels and subject areas in which the teacher provides instruction.
- Whether a teacher is teaching under emergency or other provisional status through which State qualification or licensing criteria have been waived.
- What major each teacher earned his/her bachelor's degree in.
- Whether the teacher holds a graduate certification or degree and in what field or discipline.
- Whether a child is provided services by paraprofessionals and, if so, their qualifications.

In addition, every school receiving Title I funds must provide to each parent:

- Information on the child's level of achievement on each required state assessment.
- Timely notice if a child has been assigned, or has been taught for four or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not highly qualified as defined by the law.

All information provided to parents must be in an understandable and uniform format and provided in a language parents can understand to the extent practicable.

Legislation: Title, Section 111 l(h)(6)-parents right to know.

It is the policy of Dale Public Schools that a Title I teacher hands a copy to all Title I students and parents at our annual Meet Your Teacher Night, which is held at the beginning of every school year and to new students and parents as appropriate throughout the course of the school year.
